Luverne United Methodist Church WORSHIP SERVICE 17th Sunday after Pentecost September 19, 2021

Silver Bucket for September

The United Methodist Committee on Relief's response to the 7.2 Magnitude earthquake that rocked Haiti on August 14 is underway. The quake, which particularly damaged the southern and western regions of the island, has left more than 2,200 dead and 12,000 injured. For more info see your September Messenger

Bonfire and gathering ~ 3pm TODAY ~Meet at the church

We will be having a hayride, family games, a cream can cookout and of course Roger's famous bonfire! The fun, the songs, the laughter...it's time for a good time together. You are encouraged to bring something to add to the cream can...carrots, potatoes, onions, green beans, corn, chicken, sausages, etc. If you'd like to bring a dessert, that would be a great choice as well! Families, this is a great activity for you and the kids, we do plenty together and even if you are a single, there will be room for you on the hay rack! Please join us!

Wednesday Night FUEL and Confirmation Classes
